

Leadership Development

Does Your Leadership Training Deliver Emotionally Intelligent Leaders?

You've likely had experiences with emotionally intelligent leaders who operated with high confidence and Vulnerability and inspired great employee performance – every day. You've also probably interacted with leaders who also made you feel small, insignificant, or inadequate. Good leaders create a unifying vision and motivate people to bring the vision to reality. They attract, inspire, and ultimately retain the talent needed to get the job done well. With the right type of leadership and leadership skills, nothing is impossible! You've also probably interacted with leaders who made you feel small, insignificant, or inadequate. Good leaders create a unifying vision and motivate people to bring the vision to reality. They attract, inspire, and ultimately retain the talent needed to get the job done well. With the right type of leadership and leadership skills, nothing is impossible!

The People Acuity leadership development solution works from the inside out, starting with Self-Leadership, given that the influence on others cannot be any greater than the influence on self. Self-leadership is a must-have competency for anyone who wants to deliver with high energy and performance consistently! McKinsey and Fuzu's research has identified self-leadership as the most needed competency of our day. People Acuity's Self-Leadership masterclass is the recommended starting point to build emotional intelligence and your leadership bench strength.

“In my 36 years of leadership I have never seen a more comprehensive and effective development experience than Self-Leadership. Learning to affect performance by addressing people's strengths and needs has led to a whole new level of success and enjoyment in our work and the people around us. We posted the highest numbers we've had in ten years at the end of our first year of working with People Acuity.”

Robert J. Hager, CEO, Border State Bank

Those who have mastered Self-Leadership see benefits like these in their lives:

Heightened productivity and reduced time-waste

Stronger self accountability (less blaming)

All star performance and energy

Increased awareness of impact
